REQUEST FOR ADDITIONAL TIME

Amaturo Group, Ltd. ("Amaturo"), licensee of WOKC-FM, Indiantown, Florida¹; WSUV, Inc. ("WSUV"), licensee of WROC(FM), Fort Myers Villas, Florida²; and Jupiter Broadcasting Corporation ("JBC"), permittee of WADY(FM), Jupiter, Florida (collectively "Commenters"), by their attorneys, hereby respectfully request an additional three weeks, through December 9, 1994, in which to submit their Reply to the "Motion to Dismiss or Opposition" filed against their Petition for Reconsideration by Spanish Broadcasting System of Florida, Inc. ("SBSF"), in the above referenced proceeding.³

² An assignment of license for WSUV(FM) from Sunshine Broadcasting, Inc. to WSUV, Inc. was consummated on April 22, 1994. In addition, the Station's Call Sign has been changed from WSUV to WROC(FM). A statement regarding the new licensee's intention to continue to pursue the upgrade of its facilities through this proceeding was filed with the Commission on May 9, 1994.

Good cause exists for a grant of such an extension. First, SBSF's Opposition contained factual and technical allegations requiring engineering analysis, and response. Second, the preparation of Commenters' Reply requires coordination between several parties and obtaining information from diverse sources. Third, the Commission's Rules provide for only ten days (plus three for mailing) for the preparation of such replies, and Commenters' counsel was out of town at an industry convention for four days during that period.

The requested three week extension is appropriate in light of the interceding Thanksgiving holiday, and vacation schedules related thereto. Furthermore, the provision of an additional three weeks for Joint Commenters to respond, would not unduly burden the parties, nor substantially delay this proceeding. Failure to provide such an extension would disserve the public interest and waste the Commission's resources by not allowing for the fullest deliberation of all pertinent matters and relevant facts.

Undersigned counsel has advised FCC staff and Bruce A. Eisen, attorney for SBSF, that it would be requesting this extension.

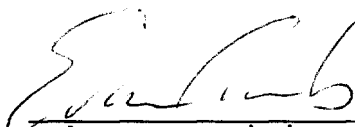

³ Commenters' Petition was filed on September 21, 1994 in response to the Commission's Report And Order in this proceeding. 59 Fed. Reg. 43064 (August 22, 1994). SBSF's Opposition was filed on November 4, 1994, and Replies thereto were due on November 17, 1994.

Good cause having been shown, it is respectfully submitted that a three week extension of time, through December 9, 1994, for Commenters to submit their Reply would serve the public interest.

Respectfully submitted,
